

A cost effective solution to entrance doors

The main benefits are;

Traditional designs

High Insulation up to 4 times more than timber !

Half Glazed u-value 2.0 W/m<sup>2</sup>K

Solid ie 6 panel u-value 1.3 W/m<sup>2</sup>K

Low maintenance

High impact resistance

If necessary they can be hand painted using ordinary gloss paint.

They can be trimmed or repaired like a traditional wooden door.

For overall structural stability this product outperforms wood and PVC doors.

About the Product

Manufactured from compression moulded glass fiber and high density polyurethane.

In extensive use since the early 1980's

300,000 + units in used with Housing associations and Local Authorities in the U.K.

*Increasingly it is the only door system approved by Housing associations in the U.K
Arctic Doors are the sole manufacturers of composite Door-sets in the Republic of Ireland since 2001.*

Where can I get them?

They are available through most good Window and door installers,

Most of the Door-sets shown on the web-site and on the brochure are pre-hung in hardwood frames.

Arctic Composite Doors are also available in a range of coloured PVC frames including Black, Red ,White, Light Oak and Mahogany, other colours are available on request.

All glazing units used in Arctic Doors door-set are double glazed where necessary, all décor design are applied to the exterior pane of glass.

For more information contact Weatherglaze Systems on 053-9483000.